Mines students are the reason we celebrate

As commencement approaches, we look forward to celebrating students who will carry on Mines' legacy of academic excellence by applying their knowledge to better industry and society. Stay connected to Mines' latest news and campus updates through this tri-annual Parent Report.

Million Dollar M Climb Nearly Complete
We are currently 34 donors away from reaching 3,000 and we need your help to unlock the full $1 million by June 30. Gifts of any size to The Parents Fund will count toward our goal of 3,000 donors.

Spring Commencement
Congratulations graduates! This year’s ceremony will honor graduate students on May 12 and undergraduate students on May 13 at the Harold & Patricia Korell Athletics Center at Marv Kay Stadium.

Senior Design
On April 28, alumni and friends were invited back to campus to serve as judges evaluating student's final projects from their two-semester long Senior Design course.

Top 2016 Graduate Research Projects
On March 25 in the Ben Parker Student Center, over 170 graduate students presented their research to a panel of judges during the annual Graduate Research And Discovery Symposium (GRADS) held by Mines' Graduate Student Government (GSG).

Mines Launches Crowdfunding
This April, Mines is piloting a crowdfunding platform, called the Gold Mine, with student-led campaigns, Start the Kart and Tiny House. Does your son or daughter have a project for the fall?
